REVIEW ENGAGEMENT REPORT

To the Directors of FOOD SECURE CANADA

We have reviewed the balance sheet of FOOD SECURE CANADA as at August 31, 2012 and the statements of income, changes in net assets and cash flows for the year then ended. Our review was made in accordance with Canadian generally accepted standards for review engagements and, accordingly, consisted primarily of inquiry, analytical procedures and discussion related to information supplied to us by the Organization.

A review does not constitute an audit and, consequently, we do not express an audit opinion on these financial statements.

Based on our review, nothing has come to our attention that causes us to believe that these financial statements are not, in all material respects, in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles.

The comparative figures have been audited by another auditor.

1. STATUS AND PURPOSE OF THE ORGANIZATION

Food Secure Canada incorporated as not-for-profit organization under the Canada Corporations Act in October 2006. Food Secure Canada is a Canada-wide alliance of civil society organizations and individuals collaboration to advance dialogue and cooperation for policies and programs that improve food security in Canada and globally.

They achieve this by:

- 1. Identifying at the bi-annual conference of FSC/SAC a set of projects of Canada-wide importance (involving research and data collection, campaigns, education, programming and policy making) that FSC/SAC helps members carry out;
- 2. Providing support to members (strategic planning, training, tools, program design advice, services, information, fundraising support) that increases the capacity of civil society to be an effective voice for food security in Canada;
- 3. Creating a space for debate, exchange, help, coordination of efforts, and pooling of resources.

2. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Use of estimates

The preparation of these financial statements in conformity with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amount of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reported period. These estimates are reviewed periodically and adjustments are made to income as appropriate in the year they become known.

Revenue Recognition

The organization follows the deferral method of accounting for contributions. All unrestricted contributions are recognized as income in the current period. Restricted contributions are recognized as income in the same period in which the related expenses are incurred.

Membership fees and donations are recognized as revenue proportionately over the fiscal year to which they relate.

Credit risk is the risk that one party to a financial instrument will cause a financial loss for the other party by failing to discharge an obligation.

FOOD SECURE CANADA NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

AS AT AUGUST 31, 2012 (unaudited)

6. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS (continued)

The Organization provides credit to its clients in the normal course of its operations. It carries out, on a continuing basis, credit checks on its clients and maintains provisions for contingent credit losses which, once they materialize, are consistent with management's forecasts. The Organization does not normally require a guarantee.

Fair value

The fair value of cash, temporary investments, accounts receivable, the bank overdraft, accounts payable, and client deposits is approximately equal to their carrying value given their short-term maturity date.

7. INFORMATION ON INCOME

The organization has decided to use the accumulated surplus as at August 31, 2011 in this year's activities before they had confirmation of the grant from The J.W. McConnell Family Foundation.
